

June 23, 2026

NCTA Responds to House Bill 315 Signing

North Carolina continues to lead, becoming the first state to ban third-party litigation investment as Governor Josh Stein signs HB 315 into law.

It was a pleasure working alongside a strong coalition of business partners on this initiative aimed at keeping North Carolina competitive, transparent, and attractive for continued investment and growth.

NCTA is proud to play a part in advancing policies that support a fair legal environment and a thriving business climate.

Read House Bill 315

For more information:

bgreenberg@nc trucking.com